3. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved 20 July 1942, and Executive Order 10600, 15 March 1955, the Legion Merit (Degree of Officer) (Second Award) for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service is awarded to:

Commodore Lee Song Ho, Republic of Korea Navy. September 1957 to January 1959.

V. SOLDIER'S MEDAL. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 2 July 1926, a Soldier's Medal for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy is awarded to:

Private First Class Richard McGraw, United States Army, a member of the 5th Training Regiment, United States Army Training Center, Infantry, Fort Jackson, South Carolina, distinguished himself by heroism on December 1959. Private McGraw was performing duty on Remagen Range and was responsible for supervising the training of basic recruits in live fragmentation grenade handling. A trainee undergoing instruction tossed an unactivated grenade which hit the top of the protective barricade and bounced back to the throwing bay, endangering the lives of all personnel in that area. Quickly realizing the immediate danger involved, Private McGraw unhesitatingly shouted the alarm. Without concern for his own personal safety, he lunged forward approximately ten feet, seized the grenade and, with only seconds to spare, tossed it out into the impact area where it instantly exploded. Private McGraw's quick judgment, presence of mind and courageous action in this sudden emergency prevented serious injury or death to personnel within the area, and reflect distinct credit upon himself and the military service.
